Our God is a God of miracles: The Bible Is Full of Miracles

- Moses parts the Red Sea (Exodus 14:21-31).
- Elisha, a human like us, prays and controls the rain (James 5:17).
- Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego survive a deadly fire (Daniel 3:16-28).
- Mana falls from heaven to feed the Israelites (Exodus 16:1-36).

In fact, there are over 150 documented miracles in the Bible.

It's clear we serve a God of miracles. So why are we often hesitant to ask for a miracle in our own lives?

Perhaps it's because we don't know how to ask.

God not only provides documented miracles in His word,
He also instructs us on how to ask for and receive these blessings in our lives.

Instructions for a miracle:

- When you pray and ask for something, believe that you have received it, and you will be given whatever you ask for (Mark 11:24).
- Ask and you shall receive... (Matthew 7:7)
- If you have the faith of a mustard seed... (Matthew 17:20-21 & similarly Luke 17:6).

God Wants to Perform Miracles In Your Life

All you have to do is believe and ask; if it is His will, it will be accomplished!

Personal Reflection:

What if God granted your miracle? How would you react and how would it change your faith?

Jesus tells us of the ultimate miracle from which we can all partake:
(Mark 2:1-12)

Break into small groups to discuss the following questions.

Questions to Consider:

1. Do you believe in miracles? Why or why not?
2. Briefly, has God ever performed a miracle in your life? How did you react?
3. The death and resurrection of Jesus was a miracle that brought us forgiveness and new life in Christ. How has this miracle impacted your life?
4. Since God loved you enough to miraculously free you from the bondage of your sins... what other miracles might His love compels Him to do for you today?
